SISTERS OF NOTRE DAME DE NAMUR

Making known God's goodness

Living Sawubona

At the opening of school liturgy at Notre Dame Academy in Hingham, MA, the celebrant, Fr. Oscar Pratt, taught us the Zulu greeting, "Sawubona." Its profound message of "I see you, you are important to me, and I value you" transcends cultural boundaries. It parallels the imperative of our second Hallmark, honoring the dignity and sacredness of each person which is crucial in fostering empathy, compassion, and a sense of community. In today's world, where it can be easy to overlook or ignore the suffering and challenges faced by others, this concept is more relevant than ever.

As we move forward into this year, let us take action - individually and as SNDdeN ministries – as called for in our Notre Dame mission so that we can truly see and value one another.

1. Practice Sawubona: Embrace the spirit of Sawubona in your daily life. Make an effort to truly see, value and appreciate the people around you. Foster a sense of belonging and inclusion in your community.
2. Practice Empathy: Actively listen to others without judgment. Try to understand their perspectives, feelings, and experiences. Empathy fosters deeper connections and mutual understanding.
3. Raise Awareness: Educating yourself and others about the issues that matter, whether it's climate change, social justice, poverty, or mental health. Awareness is the first step toward meaningful change.
4. Support and Empower: In addition to offering sympathy, provide practical support to those in need. This could involve volunteering, donating to charities, or helping individuals directly. Empowerment is often more impactful than passive assistance.
5. Reduce Environmental Impact: Given the extreme temperatures, fires and floods, consider adopting more sustainable practices both personally and within the SNDdeN ministry. Reduce energy consumption, minimize waste and support eco-friendly initiatives.
6. Practice Gratitude: Take a moment each day to appreciate the people around you and the beauty of the world. Gratitude can help you recognize and value the importance of others in your life.
7. Promote Inclusivity: Work to create an inclusive and diverse community where everyone feels valued and respected. Challenge prejudice and discrimination when you encounter it.
8. Lead by Example: Be a role model for the change you want to see in the SNDdeN ministry (in the world!). Your actions and attitudes can inspire others to follow suit.
9. Self-Care: Remember that taking care of yourself is essential to being able to support others effectively. Prioritize self-care to maintain your physical and emotional well-being.

10. Stay Informed and Adapt: The world is constantly changing, and new challenges arise. Stay informed about current events and be ready to adapt your efforts and strategies as needed.

By putting these practices in place, we can embody the spirit of Sawubona and work together to create a more compassionate, just and sustainable SNDdeN ministry where we truly see and value one another.

Peace,

Katie Colin

Mission Moments

*There is no creation
that does not have a radiance.*

Hildegard of Bingen (1098-1179)

During this fall season, when we celebrate the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi (Oct. 4), and anticipate the release of Laudato Deum, we contemplate the words of Laudato Si':

“The universe unfolds in God, who fills it completely. There is a mystical meaning to be found in a leaf, in a mountain trail, in a dewdrop, in a poor person’s face. The ideal is to discover God in all things.” (¶233).

May our Notre Dame de Namur learning communities continue to be places where students contemplate the goodness of God in all things and take action in the care of our common home. Visit Laudato Si' Action Platform for ideas.

Happenings Across the Province

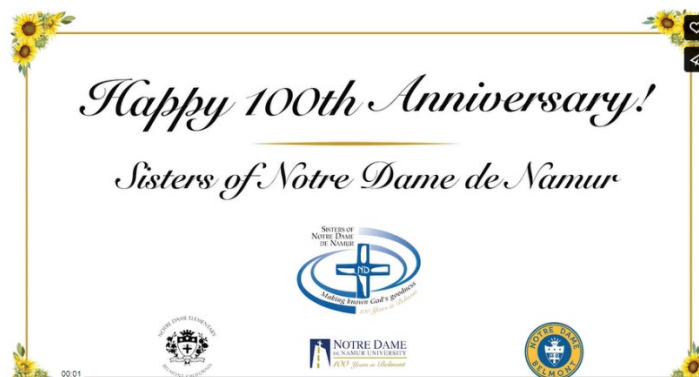

Sisters Celebrate 100 Years in Belmont, CA

On Sunday, September 24th, our Sisters celebrated their centennial in Belmont, California! Hundreds of our friends and supporters joined us for a special liturgy and ceremony at Notre Dame de Namur University to celebrate the Sisters' legacy of courage.

As part of the festivities, Sister Jean Stoner, SNDdeN, accepted proclamations recognizing the Sisters' enduring legacy from Congressman Kevin Mullin, the office of California Governor Gavin Newsom, and Belmont Mayor Julia Mates.

SNDdeN Board Orientations held on both East & West Coasts

The Sponsorship Office recently facilitated SNDdeN board orientation programs on both the east and west coast. These programs are required for new Directors, board chairs and the head of each ministry but all Directors were welcome. We discussed the fundamental principles of effective governance, the importance of accountability, transparency, as well as legal and ethical obligations while upholding the ministry by-laws and SNDdeN mission. There were connections made, fruitful discussions and helpful group activities. We are grateful to all those who attended.

Meet our New Heads of Ministries

As part of our commitment to fostering the life and mission of the congregation, in the spirit of St. Julie, we are thrilled to introduce you to the new leaders of four of our sponsored ministries! These newest members of our SNDdeN network were carefully selected and bring a wealth of experience, dedication, and fresh perspectives to their roles. We look forward to collaborating with you and supporting your leadership. Welcome!

School Leaders Conference Held in California

In June the East West & Ohio Provinces hosted the annual SNDdeN School Leaders Conference. Eighteen school ministries participated, including Sister Aoi Tsuda, SNDdeN, President at Notre Dame Seishin University in Japan. The conference included a workshop for new leaders led by Katie Colin and Meg Sharp. The keynote speaker for the conference was Ann Garrido, a nationally recognized thought leader in Catholic education, who presented on "The Spiritual Journey of the Administrator." Ministry leaders came together to learn, grow, collaborate and create new friendships with peers within their network. We are already hard at work planning for the next School Leaders Conference watch for announcements soon!

School leaders from both the East West and Ohio Province ministries gathered in San Francisco, CA for the annual School Leaders Conference.

Ann Garrido presents on "The Spiritual Journey of the Administrator."

Leadership from Academy of Notre Dame in Tyngsboro, MA.

Students Gathered in June for the Student Leadership Conference in Boston, MA

More than 90 high school student leaders chosen from our Notre Dame schools came together in June at Emmanuel College in Boston, MA for the SNDdeN Student Leadership Conference. They spent four days networking, deepening their understanding of the mission and charism of the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur and St. Julie Billiart, attending talks about environmental and ecological justice, and planning sustainability projects to be implemented back at their schools. In their downtime, they got to explore Boston, and attend a Red Sox game! Our deepest gratitude goes out to Sr. Rosemary Reynolds, SNDdeN and Ms. Gina Helms for their dedication to this conference.
